

HIGHLIGHTS REPORT 2022/23

Technoleg Iechyd Cymru
Health Technology Wales

This report is a summary of our work in 2022/23 and what we have achieved as a national health technology assessment (HTA) organisation.

115

Topics proposed to HTW

13

Topics progressed to evidence appraisal

10

Pieces of guidance published

71

Topic Exploration Reports (TERs) published

11

Evidence Appraisal Reports (EARs) published

FIVE YEARS

We celebrated our 5th anniversary in December 2022 by holding a virtual event for stakeholders.

Read more

In 2022 a Five-Year Review concluded that HTW has achieved "bold and ambitious growth".

Read more

We submitted our first annual Adoption Audit report to the Minister for Health and Social Services.

Read more

We were appointed a Collaborating Partner of the Health and Care Research Wales (HCRW) Evidence Centre.

Read more

Source of topic referrals to HTW in 2022/23

HTW guidance recommendations in 2022/23

Routine adoption
Selective adoption
Insufficient evidence to adopt

Do you know about a technology or model of care and support in health or social care that HTW could appraise?

To suggest a topic complete our online form:

Suggest a topic

“ Health Technology Wales continues to work closely with partners across Welsh health boards, specialist trusts and the social care system to ensure that its work is aligned with their key challenges. ”

Judith Paget CBE, Director General of Health and Social Services and NHS Wales Chief Executive